

TRUST – Who, What, When, Where, How

What is it?

Trust is different than faith

- Faith is defined by Webster as: “unquestioning belief that does not require proof or evidence”
 - Faith is defined by God as: “the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen” (Hebrews 11:1)
- Trust is defined by Webster as: “a firm belief or confidence in the honesty, integrity, reliability, justice, etc. of another person or thing; confident expectation”
 - The Apostle Paul shows us his confident expectation of God working things out in his life in many verses like the following verses:
 - “But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you shortly.” (Philippians 2:19)
 - “But, meanwhile, also prepare a guest room for me, for I trust that through your prayers I shall be granted to you.” (Philemon 1:22)

Faith is what saves us; trust is what blesses us by allowing God to take control of everything in our lives

- “And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.” (Romans 8:28)

You can have faith without trust, but you cannot have trust without faith

And He shall break it like the breaking of the potter’s vessel, which is broken in pieces; He shall not spare. So there shall not be found among its fragments a shard to take fire from the hearth, or to take water from the cistern.” (Isaiah 30:2-3,12)*
